SAILPAST

Even though the weather was perfect there was only a small turnout for the Sailpast on Saturday, July 16. The Commodore's yacht Peccavi was dressed in club regalia and took the salute with Director John Darby on board as crew. Led by Vice-Commodore Claude Alexander in Çá Va with smartly attired Vicki Alexander and Past Commodore Neill Holloway on board, the fleet followed on a gentle reach, with Jordan Neumann's Shark Pura Vida bringing up the end of the line.

The Wind Gypsy Award for the most smartly turned out boat and crew showing good seamanship, went to Saleem Kassum in Highland Fling.

After the event members turned out in much greater quantities for the Commodore's Wine and Cheese Reception in the clubhouse. Directors Derek Saint and Carolyn Callaghan organized the affair, with a helping hand on set-up from Tracey LeGrand and Nancy Kendrew on clean up.

FIRST CRUISE

The Early Bird short cruise to Cathedral Bluffs Yacht Club on June 2 and 3 saw Peccavi and Çá Va joined by Exuberant I, skippered by Ron Goodlin. Al Weisbrod joined dinner by road. CBYC's outstanding fireworks show was the highlight of the trip, hampered by light winds.
